

THE TILTED CITY

Author: Masoud Malekyari • Illustrator: Susan Batori

A hand-drawn illustration of a landscape. On the left, a red house with a tiled roof is partially visible. In the foreground, there are three trees with rounded, textured canopies. The trees are colored in shades of yellow-green and pink. The ground is a mix of green and brown with small colorful dots. A large, light gray, semi-transparent shape is overlaid on the scene, containing a curved arrow pointing from the text towards the trees.
