

I'm Scared Too!

By: Ghazal Mousavi

My room is dark at night and I'm scared of the dark!

A dark, stormy night scene. A large, bright lightning bolt strikes a house in the center. The sky is filled with rain, depicted as numerous white streaks falling diagonally. In the foreground, several potted plants are visible, some with flowers. The overall mood is dramatic and intense.

I'm so scared of thunder and lightning!
Especially when thunders blast and echo inside our home in the middle of the night.

I'm also scared of the park near our home as the trees look weird.
